

D128 ABERDEEN, 16 SEPTEMBER 2000

Just the last seven songs of this show (Things is missing its first three lines, all others complete). Cameraman takes about thirty seconds to find his range, thereafter picture is fine, steady and unobstructed, mainly Bob head-to-hip but occasionally taking in other band members too. Nice full sound and D in good voice make this a thoroughly enjoyable excursion back through the years.

STARS A bit more of the same and / or a couple more "unusual" numbers would have made this a five-star shoe-in. Nonetheless, a solid four.
